

Kevin J. May, DVM

Graduated from Texas A&M University School of Veterinary Medicine in 1980.

Been in practice since graduation, and utilizing veterinary acupuncture as a part of my practice since 1988.

Certified in Veterinary Acupuncture by The International Veterinary Acupuncture Society (IVAS) in 1988.

Been a member of IVAS since 1987 and The Academy of Veterinary Acupuncture (AAVA) since 1998.

Been a lecturer on Equine Acupuncture for the IVAS Basic Certification Course in Veterinary Acupuncture since 1996.

Presented a paper on "The Use of Acupuncture in the Control of Equine Foot Pain" at The American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP) 43rd Annual Convention in Phoenix, Arizona.

Lectured on Equine Acupuncture, and Trigger Points and Myofascial Pain for the Association of Veterinary Acupuncturists of Canada's Basic Certification Course in Veterinary Acupuncture in 2007.

Been a presenter on basic, small animal and/or equine acupuncture at the following:

- Wild West Veterinary Conference in Reno, Nevada – 1997
- The United States Combined Training Associations 39th Annual Meeting and Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah-1998
- The Ohio Veterinary Medical Association - Midwest Veterinary Conference in Columbus, Ohio - 2000/2001
- Central Veterinary Conference in Kansas City, Missouri-2002
- North American Veterinary Conference in Orlando, Florida-2005/2008
- Student American Veterinary Medical Association National Convention in College Station, Texas-2005
- Italian Veterinary Acupuncture Society Annual Meeting in Padova, Italy-2005
- University of Minnesota School of Veterinary Medicine-2005
- Saint George's University School of Veterinary Medicine-2006-2008
- Western Veterinary Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada-2007
- American Veterinary Medical Association Annual Conference in Washington, DC-2007 and New Orleans, Louisiana-2008
- Southwest Veterinary Symposium in Dallas, Texas-2008
- Australian Veterinary Association Annual Conference in Darwin, North Territory-2009
- Pacific Veterinary Conference in Anaheim, California-2009
- IVAS Congresses 2004-2009
- AAVA Annual Meeting-2009

Been a presenter on both Canine and Equine Pertinent Acupuncture Anatomy-IVAS Basic Certification Course in Veterinary Acupuncture-2006-2009.

Coauthor and editor of both the Canine and Equine Required Acupuncture Points CD.

Facilitator of the Alternative Therapies Forum for AAEP 2002-2006