

Dr. Joanna Milan DVM, CVA (IVAS), CERT VCHM (IVAS CIVT)
Lecturer, Tutor & Demonstrator

Dr Joanna Milan graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College (OVC) at the University of Guelph in Canada in 1990. She was certified in Veterinary Acupuncture by IVAS Australia in 2002 and her focus has been on integrative veterinary medicine since that time. After taking an intensive Chinese Herbal Medicine course with Dr Steve Marsden in 2005 she has used acupuncture and Chinese herbs as the mainstay of her veterinary practice. She now runs a house call practice in Perth treating dogs and cats with integrative therapies.

Joanna has been involved in demonstrating and tutoring for the Australian IVAS Certification Course since 2008. She enjoys assisting students through the IVAS Certification program providing valuable guidance into the theoretical and practical components of veterinary acupuncture practice. Joanna holds a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment and also delivers some of the lecture content.
