

Nathan C. Heilman, DVM, CVA, CVSMT

1333 Shelburne Road, South Burlington, VT 05403
Ph: 802-951-8800; Fx: 802-951-5800; Email: nate@givet.com

Education

Bachelor of Animal Science, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY, Class of 1993

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY, Class of 1997

International Veterinary Acupuncture Society Certification Course, Houston, TX, Class of 2005

Introduction to Chinese Herbal Medicine, A Time to Heal, Wonder Lake, IL, Class of 2007

Veterinary Spinal Manipulation Therapy, Healing Oasis Learning Center, Sturtevant, WI, Class of 2015

Work Experience

Co-Founder and Veterinarian at Qi Veterinary Clinic, South Burlington, VT 2007-present
Maintaining health, and treating disease, using an integration of Chinese and Western (allopathic) medical systems. Incorporating acupuncture, herbal medicine, spinal manipulation, nutrition counseling, and general medicine and surgery to provide holistic care.

Co-Owner/Partner, A Time To Heal, Shelburne, VT 2015 – present
A nationwide herbal distributorship, focused on providing client education, via consults and continuing education courses (introductory and advanced).

Associate Veterinarian, Vergennes Animal Hospital, Vergennes, VT 2000-2007
Incorporated acupuncture, herbal medicine, and Western (allopathic) treatments caring for domesticated species, large and small.

Teaching Experience

Instructor, A Time to Heal Herbal Course, Wonder Lake, IL; Shelburne, VT 2010, 2015
Responsible for 4 days of lecture in total, describing individual herbs, formulas, and their practical use.

IVAS & Chi Institute Acupuncture Mentor, at Qi Veterinary Clinic 2007 – Present
Hosted a dozen veterinarians for durations of days to weeks, instructing them on principles of Chinese medical treatment.

Other Relevant Experience

Instructor, 3rd degree black belt, Oom Yung Doe Martial Arts, Boston, MA 1996 – Present
Responsible for learning and teaching eight individual martial arts, combined under an integrated system; Bagwa Chung, Kung Fu, Hapkido / Aikido, Tai Chi Chung, Ship Pal Gae (18 Weapons), Udo (Jiu Jitsu), Kong Su (Tae Kwan Do), Kom Do (Samurai Sword)

Owner / Operator, Gale Force Farm, New Haven, VT 2002 – Present
Managing a small sustainable agricultural enterprise, including a woodlot with timbering , a small herd of Scottish Highland cattle, and maple syrup production.