

Dr. Ellen Kral – veterinary acupuncturist, teacher

After graduating as an equine veterinarian from the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine at the Utrecht University in The Netherlands in 1993, Ellen studied human acupuncture for three years and then became an IVAS certified veterinary acupuncturist in 1997. Thereafter she studied several more subjects like osteopathy, chiropractic, Cranio-Sacral Therapy as well as Eastern therapy forms like TCM Herbs and Shiatsu. Besides these studies, she attended many courses, deepening her knowledge of TCM and TCVM while working in 100% TCVM Equine practices. Besides practicing Ellen enjoys teaching in the veterinary acupuncture course at Healthcare-Academy Den Hoek.
