

Andreas Zohmann, DVM, cand. scient. med.

Specialist in Acupuncture and Neural therapy (Austria)
Specialist in Physical medicine (Germany)

Born 1957 in Salzburg (Austria)
Study of Veterinary medicine at the VMU Vienna (Austria).
Thesis on pathophysiology of ear acupuncture.

12 years scientific manager in Neural therapy and pain treatment (pharmaceutical company).
During this time 10 years lecturer on Acupuncture and Neural therapy at VMU Vienna.
2 years development of the Ambulance for Physical medicine at the VMU Vienna.
4 years lecturer on Physical medicine at the JL-University Giessen (Germany)
Since 1999 veterinary head of the first Vierbeiner Rehab-center and of the Academy for extended Veterinary medicine at Bad Wildungen (Hessen, Germany).
Since 2018 working also in a practice community for holistic veterinary medicine in Oberalm/Salzburg (Austria) and consultant in a lot of practices in Austria, Germany, and Switzerland.
Study of Medical sciences at the Medical University Salzburg –
Working on a thesis on the working mechanisms of elementary gold in tissues for relieve of chronic pain.

Four books, a lot of publications and awards in the fields of Pain treatment and Physical medicine.